A Reflection and Call for Action in Roeland Park

Within the history of Roeland Park, Kansas, we acknowledge those who, as Native, Indigenous, and enslaved people, contributed to its foundation. We honor their presence on our soil and their struggle for freedom and equality.

We also acknowledge the failings of the past, which include unjust choices regarding status, rights, and opportunities. It is essential to learn from these historical injustices as we commit to ensuring that Roeland Park is a place where freedom and equality are realized for all.

As we reflect on Roeland Park's history, we are reminded of our collective responsibility to uphold these principles and strive for a community where every individual is valued and respected. Let us move forward with this commitment, welcoming all who stand on our soil today and in the future.

The committee discussed this and thanked Allen for this draft. It agreed that the best location for such a sign would be at City Hall. Anna will bring an alternative version to our next meeting.

Adjournment at 7:05 p.m.

Submitted with respect,
Jim Grebe
